WEDNESDAY, SEPT. 1, 1875

NEWS OF THE MORNING.

Dispatches from San Francisco say the Bank of California will resume business the latter part of this week or on next Monday at the farthest. Mills, Sharon, Keene, Reese and Baldwin have each put in one million dollars for present needs.

The election to-day will be one of the most earnestly contested that has taken place in this county for years. We publish this morning an ugly charge against the Western Union Telegraph Company. It is difficult to imagine what object the managers of that company can have in seeking to injure the credit of the Pacific Coast.

The government agents are looking pretty sharply after the distilleries about San Francisco. Several cases of yellow fever are reported at New Orleans.

Thomas J. Jones is to be hung at New Madrid, Mo., September 10th. There was some excitement in Wall street yesterday, and call loans ran up to 6 per cent. The State Treasurer of New Jersey is being investigated.

The first day's races at Chatter Oak Park, Hartford, took place yesterday. The Seminole Negro Indians in Texas are reported in a destitute condition.

ELECTION TO-DAY. Vote early and advisedly.

VOTE THE Democratic ticket to-day and you will vote for light taxes and good government.

LOOK well to your tickets. The Republicans are trying to steal into office by printing their names on the Democratic tickets.

THERE is not a single Independent candidate in the field. The contest in this County is between the Democrats and Republicans. This is the whole matter in a nutshell.

It is a singular spectacle to behold, Generals HOWARD and BOUTON fraternizing politically, and leads one to look for the near approach of the millennial times when the lion shall lie down with the lamb.

THE whole fight to-day will be to elect TEMPLE, not because he will make any better Treasurer than ROWAN, but for the purpose of getting his money to use in the Republican Presidential campaign next year.

BEAR in mind that a vote for the Independent State or County ticket is a vote to reinstate the Republicans. BRIERLY and BOUTON have boasted that the Independent County ticket is made up of straight Republicans, and if elected will announce themselves as such.

As the Express is in no sense a political newspaper. -Express.

Indeed! This comes with ill grace on the night before election from a paper that has slandered, vilified and misrepresented WIGGINTON, ROWAN and other Democratic nominees from the opening of the campaign.

J. G. ESTUDILLO, Democratic nominee for State Treasurer, passed through this city yesterday on the way to his home in San Diego. He assured us that he had no sympathy with the feeling which certain Democrats of his county entertain against Mr. WIGGINTON. He is for the entire Democratic ticket, and will do all in his power to secure the election of every nominee. He is a wholehearted and thorough gentleman, and we hope and believe he will receive every Democratic vote cast in Los Angeles county.

We wonder if Mr. TEMPLE's backers expect to beat Mr. ROWAN with the ticket of which the following is a true copy:

Governor, William Irwin. Lieutenant Governor, Romualdo Pacheco. Secretary of State, Thomas Beck. Controller, J. W. Mandeville. State Treasurer, J. G. Estudillo. Attorney General, J. Hamilton. Surveyor General, William Minis. Clerk of Supreme Court, D. B. Woolf. Congressman, J. S. Thompson. Assemblyman, H. T. Hazard. Sheriff, David W. Alexander. County Treasurer, P. P. Temple. County Recorder, Thomas E. Rowan. County Clerk, A. W. Potts. County Auditor, F. Sabiehl. District Attorney, S. M. White. County Assessor, B. Ballerino. Constable, Jose Redona. School Supt., Thomas A. Saxton. Public Administration, J. E. Griffin. Coroner, J. Kurtz. County Tax Collector, M. Kremer. Supervisor district No. 1, John Young. Constable, S. H. Bryant. Constable, Jose Redona. Road Commissioner, C. Holt.

Mr. ROWAN is made to run for Recorder on tickets which bear Mr. TEMPLE's name for Treasurer. Thousands of tickets have been printed. This is the most contemptible trick yet unearthed. It ought to increase Mr. ROWAN's majority at least five hundred votes.

Spurious Tickets.

ALL kinds of spurious tickets will be presented to voters to-day. Almost every Independent candidate has had thousands of Democratic tickets printed with his own name in place of the Democratic nominee. A favorite dodge seems to be to have these tickets printed with the name of THOMAS E. ROWAN, for County Recorder. Every Democratic voter should carefully on his ticket from top to bottom. The Independents are trying to steal in on Democratic tickets. Foil their game by not voting one of those counterfeit ballots.

Principles or Men.

Hamlet. - Do you see that cloud, that's almost in shape like a camel. Polonius. - By the mass, and 'tis like a camel, indeed. Hamlet. - Methinks it is like a weasel. Polonius. - It is backed like a weasel. Hamlet. - Or like a whale. Polonius. - Very like a whale.

So instructed the Prince of Denmark, so echoed his hearer. It was like a camel, like a weasel, like a whale. The Prince might have exhausted the category of antediluvian and past deluvian beasts, birds and reptiles, and received to each the assent of the chamberlain. But there was "method in his madness." The application is obvious, Hamlet is the political orator, Polonius the audience. The candidate is a camel, a weasel, or a whale, according to the dictates of the orator. The people always nod an assent.

Men are what they are painted. The saint may be presented to the multitude reeking with filth, and befouled with calumny. The patriot may be shorn of his virtues by the tongue of scandal. The white robes of honor may appear to have been dabbled in blood beneath the red glare of the foot lights. In the heat of a political contest we can not properly appreciate individuals. In the dust and smoke of battle the features of the commander cannot be analyzed. But principles are eternal and so fasten upon our understanding that sophistry cannot loosen their hold or falsehood destroy their controlling power. Men die, men change, but principles live forever and grow more stable with the lapse of time. Thus it is that no party defender merely upon the purity or popularity of his representatives can survive. All republics have proclaimed that love of principle is stronger than love of men. It is the platform that receives the homage of the people and not the men who ride upon that platform. It is the maintenance of the principle we all seek, and not the elevation of the man. And this element of human nature ought to be and is the great strength of the Democratic party of California to-day. Laying aside all consideration of men the measures will win because its platform meets the approbation of the people, and its principles are recognized as the true principles of popular government. The issue is between the platform of the Democrats and the platform of the Republicans. The Independents have no platform but only go in for men. Their only hope is to secure from the other two parties a sufficient number of men worshipers and disaffected aspirants for office to gain the victory. That they will fail is only to say that the people of this Commonwealth are too intelligent to give in their absolute allegiance to a corps of individuals.

But let all who fully cherish the principles of Democracy remember that though those principles are now gaining strength throughout these United States, though they are gaining new advocates every day and marshalling the virtue and patriotism of the land for a great and decisive victory, that the battle is not yet over and the strength of every arm is needed. The abandonment of the party now and the formation of a third party is to strengthen the Republicans and threaten the very life of our free institutions. It is the third party movement now that is relied upon to save the corrupt horde that have so long ruled. The ring of office holders at Washington are watching intently the result of their new tactics in this State. They are watching you introduce the Trojan horse within your midst. Then let all who love the principles of the Democracy see that they do not endanger those principles by depositing their ballots for other candidates.

The Railroad Question.

During the discussions with which we have been regaled both on and off the stump, relative to this all absorbing topic, we have been steadily drifting away from the subject under consideration. Starting out with the broad proposition of seeking the best means to secure a measure, dear to the hearts of every one wishing to witness the prosperity and development of our Southern counties, the speedy construction of a railroad along the thirty-second parallel, the leaders of our respective parties have manipulated the subject until it has dwindled down to the question, whether or not Tom SCOTT shall build it; and has even wandered off still further and the railroad and even the powerful railway magnates are both forgotten for the moment in the all absorbing issue, whether Mr. Houghton or Mr. Wigginton shall assist in its construction. What the people of our Southern country desire most is a trans-continental road along the thirty-second parallel—a road constructed upon the cheapest and most expeditious plan. We don't care who builds it. If Tom SCOTT can come up to requirements—can do the work better, cheaper, and with greater celerity than any one else, let him pitch in and do it; no one is holding him. If any one else is able to accomplish the same end with greater advantages to us, why should we have any objection to their constructing the road? What we most want is direct communication with the East along this line, and whoever will undertake the enterprise and carry it to a speedy completion is deserving of our support and gratitude. This talk about mo-

napoly, out of which so much capital is made, is all nonsense. Any one who has studied the history of railroad warfare is perfectly cognizant of the fact that they invariably terminate in an understanding and compromise between the belligerents, by which fares and freights are advanced beyond the rates charged at the commencement of the contest. There is one thing upon which we can most certainly depend, and that is that by whomsoever this line is constructed, it will eventually become a monopoly. There will be an understanding between it and the Central Pacific which will inure to their mutual benefit at the expense of the people. The only way in which this evil can be met and overcome is by the people concentrating under the standard of "down with monopoly," and electing to the several legislative bodies, honest men, pledged to enact just and equal laws between these powerful corporations and the people. We can hope to accomplish this end by no other means. And it is not, or should not be, a question as to who shall build the railroad, but who will construct it most economically, expeditiously, and to the best interest of our Southern country. Viewing the subject from this public spirited standpoint, can you knowingly and willingly support and encourage with your suffrage a man who acknowledged here in your midst that he was bound to the Tom SCOTT clique, and whose whole public career is characterized by his servitude to the Central Pacific, and his enmity to your interests. Or will you not rather vote for one who is the slave of no corporation, but has pledged himself to earnestly labor for the advancement of the best and most honest measures for the speedy construction of this great Southern route, by whomsoever the enterprise may be undertaken. Thus far Mr. Wigginton has pledged himself; he could not do less as have your interest at heart; he could not promise more and act honestly by himself and as your representative.

Vote For Houghton?—Why?

Because he has sent all his back pay into this county to secure his election.

Because Houghton introduced the bill intended by the Southern Pacific Railroad to leave Los Angeles outside their main line and to prevent the construction of the Independence Railroad or to force Los Angeles city to pay them a heavy additional tribute of "black-mail."

Because Houghton tells us he did not know what the substance or intent of that bill was when he introduced it; and if he did not he is the most incompetent of all known Republican Congressmen—if he did he simply uttered a falsehood.

Because he insults the intelligence of his entire constituency by his repeated public declarations that he is not in the pay or interest of the Central and Southern Pacific Railroad, when his whole Congressional record places him squarely and unmistakably in that position.

Because he is spending more than his salary for his entire term, in securing his election, and must therefore look to the Southern Pacific Railroad for his reward; the Southern Pacific Railroad will look to Houghton's district to "get even," and we of Los Angeles county will have the delightful satisfaction of paying our share of the cost of his election and of what he may demand for his services, with a liberal profit on the whole transaction for the part the Southern Pacific Railroad will play in it.

Because the magnates of the Southern Pacific Railroad have just traveled from San Francisco to San Diego, ostensibly to show that WIGGINTON was "their man," and thus rob him of votes, but really to elect S. O. Houghton, the man they have always owned and will own as long as he remains in Congress.

Because if a farmer, merchant or any other man in Los Angeles county (save the small fry Houghton politicians) addresses Houghton with information or upon business during the session of Congress, he cannot get the honor even of a reply to his communication.

Because he voted to increase the tax on grape brandy; a measure which takes thousands of dollars from the grape growers of Southern California.

Therefore, vote for Houghton and "save the country."

Another Trick.

The following comes from the Democratic State Central Committee under the head of "Democrats, be on Your Guard!"

We are advised upon reliable authority that is the intention of the Independent party, on election day, to telegraph to all the prominent polling places which can be reached that the Republicans and railroad men have combined for the purpose of electing the Democratic ticket. This dodge will be for the purpose of distracting the Democratic vote, and thereby strengthening the Independent ticket. Should this move be made, which we are assured is a fact, denounce it as a fabrication and a falsehood, gotten up for the purpose of weakening the Democracy and acquiring votes thereby. Should this or any other kindred action be resorted to, denounce them all alike and telegraph to our headquarters for information. The victory is ours beyond question.

Material Arrived.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 31.—The machinery for the Los Angeles and Independence Railroad has arrived. It will reach Los Angeles in thirty days. Senators Jones stands solid and firm in his determination to assist the people of Los Angeles in their contest for cheap transportation.

San Francisco News.

SAN FRANCISCO, August 31st.—1:30 P. M.—The Bank of California will resume business in the latter part of the week or next Monday. Five capitalists, Mills, Reese, Keene and Baldwin, have subscribed a million dollars each for the present needs, though the bank assets are abundantly sufficient to carry them through. Sharon said he would sacrifice his fortune of $15,000,000 rather than have a stain rest on the name of Wm. C. Ralston. There is a happy and confident feeling all around.

In connection with the recent rumor concerning the affair of the Bank of California, respecting the over-issue of stock and disappearance of securities, and other fraudulent proceedings, which much is now positively known: That from three to three and a half millions of assets of the Bank have been but very recently abstracted without the knowledge of the Directors. How this has been done is not known at present. The Directors are still busy examining the state of affairs, but it is not known when the report may be ready.

The financial situation develops no new features this morning. The National Gold Bank and Trust Company and Merchants' Exchange Bank still remain closed.

The election to-morrow begins to engross a large share of public attention, heightened by contradictory reports, believed to have a political significance, as to the condition of the Bank of California and the prospects of its resumption.

It is being reported throughout town that the Bank of California will positively resume business. The statement is diligently used here as a factor in the political problem, it is well to state. Within the last half hour a personal interview has been held with one of the most prominent gentlemen of the Board of Directors, who says, directly, that all such statements are premature; that an effort is being made to re-organize by forming a guarantee fund to liquidate the affairs of the bank and means to resume business, and that the responses of those approached are of an encouraging nature; but that nothing can yet be stated definitely in answer to the question referring to the rumors of fraudulent management on the part of the bank.

He generally replied, "All that I can say about it is that Mr. Ralston appropriated the funds of the bank largely to his own uses. On being asked if there appeared to be evidence of intentional fraud on Mr. Ralston's part, he replied, "Mr. Ralston appropriated and used the bank to help himself out."

In addition to the seizure of the Ancho distillery, as noted yesterday, the wholesale liquor house of Charles Jost, No. 330, Clay street, has been taken possession of by Revenue officers, and about fifteen thousand gallons of spirits. It is also said that extensive excavations have been going on in and around the premises of the Pacific distillery and refining company, as though the existence of underground pipes was suspected.

It was asserted that if any thing wrong is reported in connection with the distillery business in this city, the report thereof when sent by Agent Clark to the Commission, will be pigeon-holed and its existence denied, as was the case when Mr. Lyman made his investigation some years ago, nor will Mr. Clarke be obliged to resign in August at the failure of his efforts to prevent fraud. Secretary Bristow does things in a different manner from that pursued by his predecessor, and the same may be said of Commissioner Clark. The agency of the Bank of California, at Virginia City, was open yesterday for the accommodation of such as desired to redeem their stock on which they had obtained advances. Special depositors also received their valuables, but no other business was transacted.

The Western Union Telegraph Company Hearing on California.

SAN FRANCISCO, August 31st.—The Western Union Telegraph Associated Press people of this coast, have been telegraphing East, even after the resumption of the Bank of California, a few days, is announced. It is well known here that there was no hopes whatever for the creditors of the bank, and that those holding bank stock were almost offering it for nothing on the streets of San Francisco. The N. Y. agency seems to be in full sympathy, and with much diligence gathers and sends to this coast the worst comments of the Eastern press, detrimental to the interests of this State, which they themselves have caused to be circulated. There seems to be a determined effort by the Associated Press, both at the East and on this coast, to hopelessly ruin the future credit of the Bank of California, and spread distrust generally.

St. Louis.

ST. LOUIS, August 31.—Thomas J. Jones, of St. Louis, is to be hung September 10th at New Madrid, Mo., for the murder of Frank O. Bancony. J. W. Paramora, President of the St. Louis Cotton Press company, was arrested two weeks ago in Lafayette Park, in company with a lady, for having acted beyond the rules of modest behavior, and gave himself into custody, having been out on bail; and his Attorneys obtained a writ of Habeas Corpus for him to be brought before Judge Colvin, in the court of Criminal Correction. He was brought into court on the writ, but the City Attorney was not prepared to go into the case on its new phase, and it was therefore continued until Wednesday morning.

New York.

NEW YORK, August 31st.—There was some excitement in Wall street to-day, during the last half hour of business the stock market was weak. Stocks declined and money advanced on call, loans having been run up to six per cent. The decline in stocks was led by Western Union and Lake Shore. Among the reasons assigned for the heavy decline in the past two days in Western Union Telegraph are reports that negotiations with the Atlantic and Pacific company have been broken off, and that the latter is to unite with the California company, and that the recovery of the direct cable by Farraday will make the opposition to the Western Union powerful. The Express says the fluctuations yesterday and to-day are purely speculative, and had no reference to the outside situation, which shows signs of improvement, especially among the merchants, who are doing a better business as the season advances.

Races.

HARTFORD, Conn., Aug. 31.—This is the first day of the meeting at Charter Oak Park. First race 2:38 class, purse $3000—$1500 to first, $750 to second, $450 to third and $300 to fourth winning horse. Nine started, and race won by St. Julien in three straight heats. Time, 2:28, 2:26, 2:26.

Second race 2:20 class; purse $4000, $2000 to first, $1000 to second, $600 to third, $400 to fourth winning horse. Four started, Hopeful, Lucille, Gold-dust, Lady Maud and Henry. Race won by Hopeful, taking first, second and fifth heats. Third and fourth heats won by Lady Maud. Time, 2:18, 2:22, 2:19, 2:20 and 2:23.

Treasury Investigation.

TRENTON, N. J., Aug. 31.—The committee appointed to investigate the affairs of State Treasurer Sovy are in session to-day. As yet no new developments beyond the fact that it has been discovered that there are $28,000 in Mount Holly bank for which Mr. Sovy has received no credit on the books of State Treasury. The State however, is credited on the bank books with this deposit. A number of experts are engaged in overhauling Mr. Sovy's books. The result of the examination will be made public after all accounts are in. Mr. Sovy is in comfortable condition to-day, having recovered from his nervous prostration.

NEW YORK, Aug. 31.—An injunction has been obtained restraining Treasurer of Erie County from paying the half yearly interest on consolidated mortgage bonds due to-morrow, Sept. 1st. It is announced that the interest on second and third mortgage bonds will be paid. The date of payment to be made known to-morrow.

The Bank of California.

NEW YORK, Aug. 31.—The British Bank of North America obtained an injunction in Court of Common Pleas this morning restraining Laidlaw & Co. from disposing of certain drafts now on their way from California.

Fifty thousand dollars in gold was sent to Bank of Portland, Oregon, to-day.

A Failure.

NEW YORK, Aug. 31.—A meeting of the Directors of the Atlantic & Pacific Telegraph Company was held this afternoon to consider certain propositions made by Western Union Company looking to consolidation of the two Companies. Among those present were Jay Gould, Sidney Dillon, W. J. Symes and others. The session was not of long duration and the details of proceedings have not been made public. It is believed however, that all negotiations for an amalgamation of the two Companies have been broken off, for an attempt of W. U. Company to absorb A. & P. has proved a failure.

Goldsmith Maid.

The Commissioner of Patents Resigns.

WASHINGTON, August 31st.—Hon. J. M. Thatcher, Commissioner of Patents, tendered his resignation to-day. Mr. Thatcher goes to Chicago immediately. His successor will, without doubt, be a political appointment, as the Presidential canvass is so near at hand, and the name of Hon. R. Holland Duell stands very prominent in this connection, but he is strongly opposed on account of certain dealings with Senator Conkling and the Western Union Telegraph Company, the latter being charged with a desire through its Paignt Patent and Duplex and Quadruplex claims to monopolize all telegraphic inventions.

Mail Contract.

NEW YORK, August 31st.—The Directors of the Pacific Mail Steamship Company met to-day and formally ratified the new contract with the Panama Railroad. This contract is supposed to be based to a great extent upon the tariff agreed upon last Spring when a party obtained control of the Pacific Mail line.

Coin Transfer--Fraudulent Distillation--Seminole Negroes.

EASTERN NEWS.

Coin Transfer--Distilleries.

WASHINGTON, August 31st.—The Treasury Department to-day so far reconsidered its determination not to transfer any more gold to the Pacific coast, as to permit the transfer of $50,000 for the benefit of the bank in particular. The amount was transferred to San Francisco. Treasurer New says, however, this will be all that can be transferred during August. Revenue agents have furnished evidence in fifty suits against illicit distillation and sale of whiskey. In these cases suits for fines and penalties, aggregating two hundred and twelve thousand dollars, have been entered, and spirits valued at about one hundred thousand are involved. Most of this evidence has been discovered through a system lately adopted, of comparing and checking accounts at the Treasury.

Seminole Negroes.

WASHINGTON, August 31st.—The War Department has forwarded to the Secretary of the Interior a copy of a report from Col. Hatch, of the Ninth Cavalry, dated at Fort Clark, Texas, August 9th, stating that the Seminole Negro Indians now at Fort Clark and in lower Texas are in a destitute condition and desire to be sent to a reservation where they can obtain a living or to be sent back to Florida from whence they were taken. Col. Hatch reports the number of these negroes at 500 men, women and children. Of these about sixty are men and grown boys. If the Government cannot provide them lands for cultivation they beg to be sent to Florida, where without owning lands they can obtain ground to work until means be obtained by their labor to purchase lands. They represent that when they were transferred with the Seminole Indians from Florida to the Western Territories their women and children were kidnapped and sold into slavery. This forced them to leave the country and go to Mexico. They were induced to return to Texas by promises which have never been fulfilled. A few are now employed by the Government as Indian scouts, which is the only means they have of support. These men are now away from their families on distant scouts. Many of them who are carried on the roll of Seminole scouts are discharged soldiers from colored regiments or servants of officers discharged, and as they say, are often bad men. Col. Hatch concludes as follows: "If this State of affairs continues they will undoubtedly return to Mexico and go into the mountains below San Carlos, about 150 miles West of the Rio Grande. There they can obtain land, raid upon the ranches and furnish an asylum for deserters, white and black, from the frontier. These Seminole Negroes are entirely distinct from the Seminole Indians. They are like all other negroes except that they are accustomed to arms and are brave and daring and superior to the Indians of this region in fighting qualities. I believe it humanity and economy to put these people in the way of self-support, and if not colonized on a Government reservation send them, as they request to Florida."

solidated and Mining Co. The company, after considerable development, has yielded returns beyond their expectations, and every indication thus far points to a still more valuable result. The various and reported strikes in the district, from $30 to $40 per ton, and the Company feel themselves warranted in the statement that these mines are permanent and valuable ledges. In view of those facts they have authorized the sale of a very limited amount of stock, for working capital, at $5 per share. The development of the property will inevitably result in the employment of a number of men in the district in which they are situated, and in the end, build up a camp of considerable size, the supplies for which must be drawn from our midst. The Directors feel themselves justified in recommending this stock to the confidence of the business men, as well as to the general community of Los Angeles.

The brig Hesperian has arrived with two hundred and sixty thousand feet of lumber for Griffith, Lynch & Co., of this city.

Cohn, at 61 Main street, is selling fine imported cigars, two for 25 cents.

We have tried those cigars and can vouch for their being the genuine article.

Yesterday morning at four o'clock we say paper hangers at work in a store near the Pico House, and by afternoon Perlich's restaurant was in full running order.

Col. John C. Tucker, of North Carolina, has been making his home at Santa Monica for several weeks. He reports himself delighted with the climate and prospects.

A dispatch from London, England, to Mr. A. N. Horner, stopping at the St. Charles, was delivered in one hour and forty minutes from the time it was started beyond the ocean.

There is only one sick person at the French Hospital, though the place accommodates two hundred and sixty inmates. Such a fact speaks volumes for the healthy climate of Los Angeles.

Last night a wholesale paper collar merchant on Commercial street was called in to settle the difficulty between a landlady and her tenants. He showed trunks, umbrellas, etc., out and paid the bill himself.

Hewitt, the horse-poisoner, received the full extent of the law, three years in San Quentin. Having had two trials, the matter will probably rest here, and may Hewitt have a more humane successor in the hack business.

The public school will not be closed to-day. We agree with the teachers that it is much better for the children to be in a school than on the streets, when so thronged as they will be to-day. Let all parents endorse the action of the teachers.

Senator Jones' agents report that the machinery for the Los Angeles and Independence Railroad has arrived at San Francisco and will reach Los Angeles in thirty days. Coming as it does on the eve of election it may be intended to influence voters.

In view of the fact that election day is a statutory holiday, Wells, Fargo & Co., and the Post-office will keep open till half past 9 o'clock A. M. to-day. All business will be transacted as usual except that the Post-office money order office will transact no business during the day.

It will be remembered that on the morning of the recent fire on Alameda street a robbery was committed on Aliso street. Detective Harris has been working the case up since that time, and on yesterday afternoon arrested a man named Charles Russell, whom he believes to be the thief.

Sig. Marra leaves for Lima, on Saturday. A farewell reception will be given Wednesday night, at Doctor Brown's, on Main street.

Vote the straight Democratic ticket.

The Republicans have captured a Democrat while he was absent from town, and to give zest to the ticket are running him for Public Administrator.

The Danville, Ill., Commercial says "Mr. Michael Weaver, of that city, will, on August 19th, celebrate his one hundredth birthday."

Mr. Weaver is grandfather of Mr. E. E. Fisher, of the firm of Fisher & Thatcher, and intends shortly, if his health permits, to visit Los Angeles.

Messrs Gregg and Horner have been passing the summer at Santa Monica, and came back well pleased with our watering place. In their rambles up the coast they found a good show of gold in several places. They are experienced miners and intend prospecting farther at an early date.

In his remarks on Spanish textbooks at the meeting on Monday night, Mr. Alexander Forbes paid a flattering compliment to Prof. Saxon, the Democratic candidate for School Superintendent. His encomiums received the hearty applause of the Spaniards present.

Some friends of Mrs. White, who came among us recently to introduce Robinson's System of musical instruction, will be pleased to learn that she is recovering from a severe attack of chills and fever, imported from Visalia, and hopes to be out in a day or two.

We regret to announce the death of Arthur Beavis, by consumption at the City Hospital, on Monday morning at an early hour. The deceased was formerly well known as a hack driver and hostler at Ferguson's stable. His friends turned out in large numbers, and followed his remains to the City Cemetery. He leaves relatives in Pennsylvania.

We had the pleasure of meeting, yesterday morning, Mr. Sigmund Kutnow, with Banning Bros., dealers in clothing and furnishing goods, San Francisco. Mr. Kutnow on his visit here, had an important law suit settled in his favor and felt jubilant. The case was one in which he foiled an attempt to obtain money by false pretenses, and he was victorious and left for Anaheim yesterday highly elated. He will return early next week and gives his friends a blow-out.

The installation services in the Presbyterian church last Sunday, we inadequately omitted to mention. The installation sermon and charge to pastor were given by Rev. Dr. Scott, of San Francisco. The charge to the congregation was delivered by Rev. J. M. Allis, of Anaheim. The music was under Prof. Havell's charge, assisted by Mrs. Caswell and Miss Nellie White. The church was well attended, and Rev. Dr. White was installed under very flattering circumstances.

Death in the Mutual Aid Association.

Mrs. Ellen Moloney, a member of the Southern Mutual Aid Association, died in this city last Sunday after a brief illness. This is the third death in the Association in two years. The second death occurred over six months ago at Grangeville, Tulare County. The rate of mortality is very low, considering the membership, which now numbers between four and five hundred, and indicates a careful selection of members on behalf of the management.

The Republican Meeting.

Last night a small crowd gathered in front of Temple Block to hear Hazard, White and other exponents of Republicanism make a last appeal for the ticket.

The meeting was called to order by Dr. Richardson, who announced the following list of officers:

President, Dr. C. W. Bush, Vice-Presidents, J. Dunsmore, B. C. Whiting, J. R. Thurman, Ramon Sotelo, J. S. Crawford, Judge Thomas, J. T. Gordon, Wm. McFadden.

Hazard was the first speaker. He commenced with a quotation from Patrick Henry, and then struggled through the dreary platitudes of Republicanism, leaving his audience gloomy and dissatisfied.

White, the glib candidate for District Attorney, who can out-talk a wind-mill or water-wheel against time spent half an hour trying to explain how he got into a place in the Republican ticket, but assuring his Democratic friends that he was all right on their State ticket. He was Independent in County affairs but partisan on the State ticket. He subsided after a vain attempt to get up a little enthusiasm.

A Spaniard named Joaquin, Mr. Furlong and Prof. Saxon made short addresses.

The Broad-axe was called for, but the managers of the show immediately put the lights out and fled from the stage. No limbs broken so far as heard from in the attempt to escape from the bloody Broad-Axe.

F. Adam, merchant tailor, has just received an elegant lot of cloths, cassimeres and suitings of the latest popular patterns. The stock is probably the largest of its kind to be found in the city, and no one can fail to be suited in making a selection. Call on F. Adam, Spring street, for your stylish suits. sept1

A Lady's Views on the Crisis.

EDITOR HERALD: While reading the editorial of Saturday evening's Express, written upon Mr. Ralston's death, we saw that although they mention the old Latin adage, it is quite evident that they have forgotten to confine that editorial pen of theirs, to its precepts, and while attempting to eulogize the dead man, they have mingled commendation and condemnation so closely together, that his virtues outweigh his virtues.

The lion is dead. And they who found no fault with the living man, try to drag up for public inspection the secrets which death hath folded in mystery.

We ask in all sincerity, would it not be better to leave his sins wrapped in the death mantle of silence, and his judgment to the mercy of the Creator who alone can fathom the complex motives of the human heart.

There is often on such occasions as this, a strain of the ludicrous mixed with the sad requiem of the pathetic; it is clearly illustrated by an event which happened in one of eastern cities some years ago.

A little Frenchman placed in the bank when times were good, five thousand dollars. He called at the banking house one day in a state of excitement not easily described.

"How do you do?" inquired the banker. "Sick? very sick," replied Monsieur, "What is the matter?" "De times," he said, "what disease is that?" "De maladie dat break all de merchants, ver much." Ah! the times eh, well, they are bad, very bad sure enough. But how do they effect you?"

"Vy, Monsieur, I lose de confidence." "In whom?" "In everybody." "Not in me, I hope?" Pardonnez moy, Monsieur, but I do not know who to trust at present, when all de merchants break several times, all de pieces." "Then, I presume, you want your money?"

"Oui, Monsieur, I starve for want of de 1500 francs. Can't you do without it?" "No Monsieur, I must have him." "You must?" "Oui, Monsieur, said the little Frenchman, turning pale with apprehension for the safety of his money. "And you can't do without it?" "No Monsieur, not one franc, I want de money longare." The banker turned to his safe, took out the amount and handed it to his visitor.

"Vat idis, Monsieur?" "The five thousand dollars with interest." "Is it bon?" said the Frenchman, with amazement. "Certainly," "Have you de l'argent in de bank?" "Yes," "And is it parfitment convenient to pay de sum?" "Undoubtedly. What astonishes you?" Vy, dat you have got him in dese times." Oh, yes, and we have got plenty more. We owe nothing that we cannot pay." The Frenchman was a little perturbed. "Monsieur you do me one little favour, eh?" "With all my heart," "Well, Monsieur, you shall keep de l'argent for me some leetle year longare." "Why, I thought you wanted it." "Tout au contraire, I want de l'argent, I want de grand confidence. Suppose you no got de money, den I want him ver much—suppose you got him, den I no want him at all. Vous comprenez, eh?" After some farther conference, the little Frenchman prevailed upon the banker to keep his money, and left the bank with a light heart, and a countenance very different from the one he wore when he entered it. His confidence was restored, and although he did not stand in need of the money, he wished to know that his property was in safe hands.

This little sketch has a moral, which the reader will do me the favor to explain for himself. ZOE ZELLA. Los Angeles, Aug. 29 1875.

CONDENSED TELEGRAMS.
An Allentown, Pa., dispatch says: Last night Hon. J. B. Shaw, ex-State Senator and a member of the House of Representatives, residing in Hamilton street, committed suicide by blowing his brains out. No cause is assigned for the rash act. He leaves a wife and three children.

In New York yesterday morning during a quarrel over a game of cards in a saloon on eighth Avenue between M. W. Moore and a stranger, the latter drew a knife and stabbed Moore in the abdomen, inflicting a probably fatal wound. The assassin escaped. Moore was taken to the hospital.

The Synod of the Irish Archbishops of the Catholic Church, summoned under the express authority of the Pope, met at Maynooth, Cardinal Cullen presiding. It is understood that the educational question will be the principal subject of the discussion.
